

AIAG 2024 SUPPLY CHAIN CONFERENCE

Charging Ahead - Managing EV Battery Risks for a Sustainable Future

2024 SUPPLY CHAIN CONFERENCE

June 20, 2024 | MotorCity Casino

Session Time	General Session Room
8:00AM - 8:50AM	Registration and Continental Breakfast
8:50AM - 9:00AM	Welcome (AIAG) Tanya Bolden Vice President, Corporate Responsibility & Supply Chain Automotive Industry Action Group
9:00AM - 9:40:AM	Opening Remarks and EV Industry Briefing EV is here and Brian Engle will be discussing how we continue to move the in right direction for EV as the industry faces challenges taking a look beyond 2024. Discussing what is still to come, how do we prepare and what obstacles can we anticipate moving forward. How do we take the success we've had thus far as we look at the future Brian Engle Director, Business Development: Electrification - Amphenol President - NAATBatt
9:40AM - 10:10AM	U.S. Department of Energy program updates Department of Energy Office of Manufacturing and Energy Supply Chains (MESC) take a deeper look at the opportunity to secure American supply chains domestically. MESC outlines their vision on eliminating vulnerabilities in US Clean Energy supply chains, while creating social, economic, and environmental impact through their wide array of available programs Daniel Shapiro Technology Deployment Manager Office of Manufacturing and Energy Supply Chains U.S. Department of Energy
10:10AM - 10:50AM	Is your company receiving all available clean energy tax credits? Hear how the US Treasury is doing their part to prioritize EV vehicles, through various programs and tax credits available in the EV space Rachel McCleery Senior Advisor, IRA Program Office U.S. Department of the Treasury
10:50AM - 11:20AM	Networking Break
11:20AM - 12:00PM	Technology Development and Adoption through Supply Chain Disruption

	Hear from an industry expert on what is impacting the EV development and production, and the advancement of technology Andreas Bareid Head of EV and Battery Business Development QAD
12:00PM - 1:30PM	Networking Lunch
1:30PM - 2:10PM	Regulations You Need to Know - from Warehousing to Shipping EV Battery challenges in supply chain in shipping/storage/packing regulations - including end of life, damaged/defective or recalled (DDR), global regulations, needed training, best practices for shipping / storage and what to do with thermal events Thaddeus Puccini Senior Executive, Packaging and Global Business Development LabelMaster
2:10PM - 2:50PM	Transportation Safety Briefing High level safety briefing - an introduction to potential EV Battery risk and the types of solutions that already exist (Q&A included) Damon Robinson Chief - Plans and Examinations Detroit Fire Department Donald Thomas Fire Marshal City of Detroit Moderator: Ron Butler Chief Executive Officer ESSPI
2:50PM - 3:20PM	Networking Break
3:20PM - 4:00PM	Driving Sustainable Solutions What makes sustainable solutions work? We'll hear from Bithika Chakravarty, Manager, Mobility Group at Eaton, as she discusses ways to become a more sustainable community. From creating sustainable solutions, engaging our employees and communities, and doing business right and with transparency (Q&A included) Bithika Chakravarty Manager, Mobility Group Eaton
4:00PM - 4:40PM	Industry EV Battery Standardization Programs: AIAG Program Plan Simon Kissonergis VP, Chief Quality Officer StarPlus Energy Matt Pohlman Chief Executive Officer AIAG Moderator: Ron Butler Chief Executive Officer ESSPI
4:40PM - 4:50PM	Closing Remarks (AIAG)