

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Timo Unger
Manager, Environment Affairs
Hyundai Motor Europe Technical Center GmbH

An engineer for Recycling Technology by training, Timo has worked over 20 years already in the automotive industry and since 2005 for the European R&D Center of Hyundai & Kia Motor Company as Manager, Environmental Affairs. He has represented Hyundai in numerous industry working groups concerned with environmental issues, including the Steering Committee of IMDS, the International Material Data System. He also Chairs the Automotive Industry Task Force on REACH and the Working Group on Materials & Substances of ACEA, the EU vehicle manufacturers' association. Lastly, Timo is a member of the UN Environment Programme Steering Group on CiP (Chemicals in Products).