

Derek Hawn
Global Export Compliance
Nissan Motor Company

Derek Hawn joined Nissan in September 2011. His responsibility includes export control and sanction compliance and its impact on Nissan operations globally. This includes but is not limited to the following: Policy development and adjustment to geopolitical factors, Process development in line with regulatory environment and corporate policy, internal compliance reviews across multiple group companies, mandatory and targeted training, sanctions screening and “Know Your Customer” analysis, classification, and licensing. He is a certified Export Compliance Professional (ECoP) through the Export Compliance Training Institute (ECTI).

Prior to joining Nissan, Derek worked for Hitachi GST, and IBM managing various areas of responsibility within the trade compliance function.

Derek has a Bachelor of Business Administration and Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Michigan – Dearborn.