SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Jim Liegghio
Director, Supply Chain
AIAG

Within AIAG, Jim is responsible for leading Supply Chain initiatives and strategy including committees and work groups involved in materials management and delivery excellence, as well as oversight of key, industry-developed programs enabling international trade & customs compliance. His work also encompasses overseeing the production of AIAG's Supply Chain industry events and cultivating relationships with SCM talent pipeline universities aimed at developing future automotive leaders. Key responsibilities include the formulation and development of industry-relevant programs in a broad array of automotive supply chain topics, identifying emerging issues, and representing AIAG's Supply Chain interests in relevant industry forums.

Jim has over 25 years of industry experience in a wide variety of supply chain disciplines. He has held significant hands-on, plant-level material and production control experiences in addition to having held corporate-level logistics roles at now STELLANTIS (formerly FCA/Chrysler Group LLC). His corporate logistics experience spanned both inbound assembly logistics as well as finished vehicle logistics in both a domestic and an international capacity.

Following his OEM experiences, Jim has held various roles within international logistics operations, purchasing, and trade compliance management within global, tier-level manufacturing companies.

Education
B.S., Logistics Management – Wayne State University (Summa Cum Laude)
M.S.A., Administration – Central Michigan University