

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

P. Matthew Pohlman
Chief Executive Officer,
Automotive Industry Action Group

As CEO of AIAG, Matt Pohlman collaborates with the board of directors to chart the organization's future course and drive initiatives that support member companies and the mobility industries more broadly. Along with directing and managing all aspects of AIAG, Matt determines strategic priorities, represents the organization in public forums, and works closely with internal teams and global partners alike to facilitate innovative solutions to common industry issues.

With his entire career to date in automotive, Matt's extensive experience encompasses virtually all areas of supply chain management, including supplier quality, manufacturing, production control, distribution, purchasing, sales and marketing, reverse logistics, customs, and even last mile delivery to retail stores.

Prior to joining AIAG, Matt worked both domestically and internationally at Federal-Mogul for nearly two decades before joining Delphi Automotive, first as Vice President of Global Supply Chain Management, then as Vice President of Integrated Supply Chain in Luxembourg. Most recently Matt worked for Icahn Automotive, WABCO/ZF Group, and First Brands Groups, LLC, in various senior executive roles focused on leadership and transformation.

A current board member for the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP), Eastern Michigan (Great Lakes) Roundtable, Matt previously served on the Board of Directors for the Motor & Equipment Remanufacturers Association (MERA) as well, and will be joining the International Automotive Oversight Bureau (IAOB) Board of Directors at the end of 2022.
