

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Karin Muller
Global Director, Trade & Customs Compliance
Magna International Inc

Karin has 45+ years customs and trade experience in various senior consulting, operation and management roles. Her previous positions have included roles within CBSA, a large bank, accounting firm and various customs brokers in trade and compliance roles.

Karin has facilitated many workshops and training sessions for a multitude of global companies on a variety of topics relating to import and export logistic requirements, regulations and processes. She has been a featured speaker in the U.S. and Canada for various trade organizations and local Chambers of Commerce addressing import and export topics such as country of origin, trade agreements including USMCA and coordination of activities between the US, Canada and Mexico.

Karin's current role includes managing a Global Trade Management Program to ensure consistency, efficiency, and sustainability in the trade compliance supply chain throughout the company. While trade continues to change at a breakneck speed, her primary focus over the past couple of years has been to ensure trade related tariffs, regulatory changes and associated risks are understood and managed operationally to ensure compliance with the policies and regulatory requirements.

Karin is involved in a number of associations participating in working groups for APMA, AIAG and MEMA.
