

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Kim Campbell
Founder & CEO
mkmarin Trade Services

Kim Campbell is a seasoned trade and customs expert with over 35 years of experience in executive, managerial, and technical leadership roles across government and private sectors. She is the founder and President of MKMarin Trade Services Inc., a customs brokerage, trade consulting, and software firm established in 2007. A graduate of the University of Toronto and the Institute of Corporate Directors' Rotman DEP program, Ms. Campbell holds the ICD.D designation, along with CCS (Certified Customs Specialist) certifications in Canada and the United States, and CTCS (Certified Trade Compliance Specialist) accreditation.

Her leadership roles include serving as Past Chair of I.E. Canada, Chair of the Canadian Society of Customs Brokers, and Board member of CIFFA and the International Federation of Customs Brokers. She co-chairs CBSA's Border Trade and Recourse Committee and actively represents industry stakeholders on key government committees, such as the CUSMA SME Working Group. Ms. Campbell has advised Canadian ministers and parliamentary committees on international trade policy and border processes, contributed to UN/CEFACT trade facilitation initiatives, and participated in the 2022 Supply Chain Ministerial Forum as part of the President's Global Supply Chain Summit.

A frequent speaker at industry and government forums in Canada and the U.S., she has been recognized as one of the Top 100 Canadian Professionals, received the International Trade Champion Award from I.E. Canada, and was honored in the Portraits of Giving initiative.