

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Liborio Salemi

Director

IATF France

Liborio Salemi is Director of IATF France, where he leads the organization's global oversight activities ensuring the continual improvement of the IATF 16949 certification scheme.

With more than 25 years of experience in automotive quality, Liborio has built an international career spanning quality management, supplier development, certification oversight, auditing, and industrial leadership.

Fluent in five languages, Liborio is passionate about developing people, promoting global collaboration, and helping organizations achieve sustainable excellence through effective quality management and continual improvement.