

CONFERENCE Speaker

Yan Zhang
Managing Director
IAOB Beijing Representative Office

www.iaob.org

Ms. Zhang Yan has been with the International Automotive Oversight Bureau (IAOB) Beijing Representative Office, the oversight body of the International Automotive Task Force (IATF), since June 2021. In her role, she supports IATF strategic initiatives and contributes to the effective operation of the IATF Beijing Administrative Office.

Ms. Zhang plays a key role in managing IAOB activities in China, supporting alignment with IATF Rules and requirements, and facilitating communication between the Chinese automotive industry and IAOB and IATF. She also contributes to oversight-related activities, including supporting audit monitoring and related assessment processes.

In addition, Ms. Zhang engages with key industry stakeholders and participates in relevant IATF initiatives and forums, supporting coordination across the automotive sector in China.

Ms. Zhang has over 30 years of leadership experience in supplier quality and management across the automotive industry. Her previous roles include Head of Supplier Quality for the APAC region at Fiat Chrysler Automobiles, Deputy Head of Supplier Quality at Fiat China Bus Co. Ltd., Head of APAC Supplier Quality at CNH Industrial, Supplier Quality Manager at Johnson Controls Inc., and Supplier Technical Assistance (STA) at Ford Motor Company.

Ms. Zhang holds a master's degree in business administration from Tongji University and a bachelor's degree in foreign Languages from Nanchang Normal University.