

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

María Udaeta
STA Digitalization & Transformation
Ford Motor Company

María Udaeta is an Mechanical Engineer with 12 years of experience as a manager in Supplier Technical Assistance department within Supply Chain Department in Ford Motor Company.

She possesses a strong technical background in driving production quality issues prevention and complex warranty problems resolution. Her area of focus is elevating the customer satisfaction and reducing warranty cost by leveraging digitalization of data sharing along the supply chain.