

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Kyle Mohrbach
Automotive Sales Executive
o9 Solutions

Kyle Mohrbach is a supply chain transformation leader at o9 Solutions, focused on helping automotive companies navigate volatility and rethink how planning gets done. He specializes in connecting strategy to execution through Integrated Business Planning (IBP), enabling organizations to move faster, align cross-functionally, and make better decisions across demand, supply, and operations.

With a background that spans both technology and the automotive industry, Kyle brings a practical, real-world perspective to transformation. Before joining o9, he worked closely with enterprise customers and OEM supply networks, tackling challenges like demand swings, supplier complexity, and shifting market dynamics.

Kyle holds an MBA from DePaul University and a B.S. in Management from Indiana University.
