Mimi Brown, CSP: Influence Expert, High-Energy Keynote Speaker, and Leadership Strategist

Mimi Brown is a high-energy keynote speaker and expert in influential leadership, communication, and engagement. With her dynamic presence and real-world strategies, she helps leaders master the art of influence, build trust, and drive action in high-stakes environments.

Delivering over 50 keynotes and training sessions each year, Mimi has worked with industry-leading companies, including Pepsi, Coca-Cola, Kimberly-Clark, Evite, Consumers Energy, Blue Cross Blue Shield, and other Fortune 500 organizations. She has partnered with leaders in industries such as manufacturing, automotive, technology, utilities, food service, and consulting—sectors where influence, leadership, and effective communication drive success.

As a Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), Mimi holds the highest-earned designation in the professional speaking industry—an honor achieved by less than 17% of speakers worldwide. Her engaging, results-driven keynotes equip leaders with the tools they need to influence with confidence, build strong relationships, and create environments where teams take action.

When you need a speaker who delivers energy, impact, and immediate takeaways, Mimi Brown brings a transformational experience that leaves leaders inspired, empowered, and ready to lead with influence.

When Mimi isn't on stage, you can catch her throwing punches in her daily kickboxing class or binge-watching the latest true crime series.
