Thibault Grandemenge
Business Domain Manager
Catena-X e.V.

Thibault Grandemenge is Business Domain Manager at Catena-X, where he leads the development of Supply Chain and Quality use cases to enable data-driven collaboration across the automotive ecosystem. He is currently building up a new Engineering business domain, expanding Catena-X capabilities into product development and lifecycle processes. In addition, he is responsible for the Industry Core, which establishes end-to-end traceability of parts and serves as the common foundation for scalable, interoperable use cases across Catena-X.
