

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Jeffrey Liker

Jeffrey K. Liker is Professor Emeritus, Industrial and Operations Engineering at The University of Michigan and President of Liker Lean Advisors, LLC. He is author of the best-selling book, The Toyota Way, Second Edition, and has coauthored fifteen other books about Toyota including Slow Tech The Toyota Way (forthcoming), and The Toyota Way to Lean Leadership.

His graphic novel with Eduardo Lander and Tom Root tells the story of lean transformation at a mail-order company: Lean in a High-Variability Business. A shorter version focuses on kata: Engaging the Team at Zingerman's Mail Order. Giving Wings to Her Team is a business novel written with Tilo Schwarz about learning to coach the kata way.

His articles and books have won thirteen Shingo Prizes for Research Excellence. He was inducted into the Association of Manufacturing Excellence Hall of Fame and the Shingo Academy.